

Rexleigh Bridge - NY-58-03

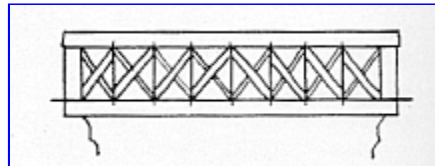

Rexleigh, NY - Washington County

Rexleigh Bridge

Rexleigh Portal

Bridge StatisticsRegion: *Capital DistrictCounty: *WashingtonTown: *SalemLocality: *RexleighPosition - Lat: *N 43° 08.069'Lon: *W 73° 21.335'Bridge Carries: *Rexleigh RoadBridge Crosses: *Battenkill RiverBridge Traffic: *VehicularTruss Type: *Howe TrussYear Built: *1874Builder: *Reuben Comins and George WadsworthStructure Characteristics: Length: 107'-0"
*Width: 17'-10"World Guide No.: *32-58-03National Register of Historic Places*Date: March 8, 1978

Description

The Rexleigh Bridge one of three covered bridges in Washington County which crosses the Battenkill River. The bridge carries Rexleigh Road and is a Howe Truss with a span of 107 feet. This bridge was built in 1857.

Photography

Be careful of traffic when taking portal shots. Easy access under bridge for elevation views.

Parking

Parking available near bridge.

Additional Information / Web Links

Covered Bridges In Salem - Rexleigh Bridge

Truss / Arch

Rexleigh Bridge Truss

Location Map

Location

0.3 miles east northeast of junction of NY29 on NY22 to Greenwich Junction, then 1.5 miles right on Rexleigh Rd. South southwest of Salem in Washington County.

Return to Covered Bridges